RHYS BOWEN

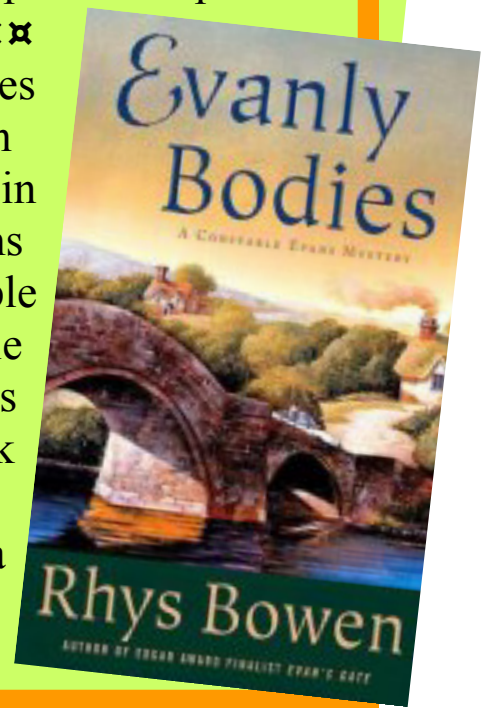

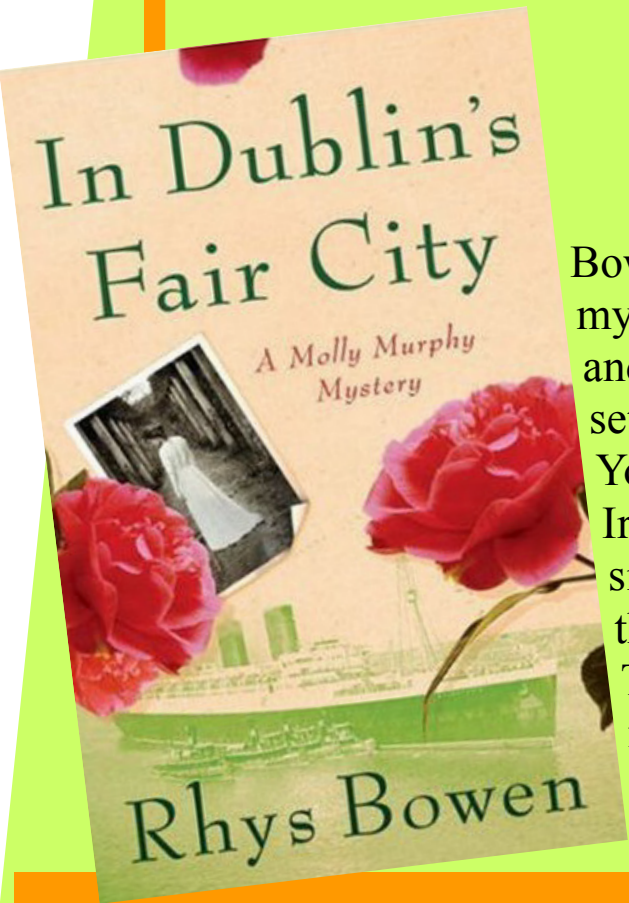

The Molly Murphy and Constable Evans Mysteries

All welcome

Bloomsbury Books

Bowen is on tour with the latest Molly Murphy mysteries, Oh Danny Boy (St Martins, 2006) and In Dublin's Fair City (St. Martins, 2007), set in turn-of-the-century old New York. You'll be delighted with Molly's brash Irish charm and the cultural and historical insights that enhance the suspense and pace of the mysteries. ■■■■■■■■■■

The Constable Evans series is set in the fictional town of Llanfair, nestled deep in the spectacular mountains of Wales. The simple pleasures and gentle humor of life in this remote region mask dark and terrible mysteries that are a wonder to read.

"The most pervasive character in the Molly Murphy books is New York City itself. Bowen, always a consummate professional, conveys such a strong sense of the turn-of-the-century city that you can smell it. If you don't love New York, and Molly, when you begin, you will by the time you finish."
