

Jackson County Reads Mysteries

Oregon, the State of Mystery Reading, Writing & Publishing Crime Fiction

Saturday Mar 26, 10a-2p
Medford Branch Library

Ask the experts

Panel Presentations 10a-12noon | Lunch on Your Own
12-12:30 | Small Groups—Ask the Experts 12:30-2p

Oregon, The State of Mystery—Why We Love Mystery and Crime Fiction by Phil Messina, Chair of the Southern Oregon Chapter of the Willamette Writers

Short Form Mystery—Bare Bones Writing by Tim Wohlforth, author of more than 70 published short stories & the eco-thriller Harry, published in 2010 by Whiskey Creek Press

Writing the Police Procedural—How to Do It by Kenneth R. Lewis, Rogue River Police Chief & author of Little Blue Whales, & The Sparrow's Blade

Get Good, Get Better, Get Published—Polishing, Presenting, Publishing by Robert Arellano, the author of Edgar-nominated Havana Lunar & two earlier novels, published by Akashic

Marketing Your Brand and Your Mystery—Getting the Word Out by Morgan Hunt, communications coach & author of the Tess Camillo mysteries

Co-Sponsored by Jackson County Library Services and Ashland Mystery, Friends of the Ashland Public Library, Bookwagon New & Used Books, Standing Stone Brewing Company. For more information call: 541-552-0743.

